

All Saints' Day is a solemn Holy Day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the Saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained Heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.

All Saints' Day is a Catholic Holy Day of Obligation which binds us to attend Mass under pain of Mortal Sin, e.g. all Catholics are required to attend Mass on that day, unless they have an excellent excuse, such as serious illness.

The Schedule of Masses for All Saints' Day is as follows:
