

My beloved Parishioners:

“Seek the Lord, while He may be found!” How beautiful! How hope-inspiring!

The Lord, the only real treasure anyone can have, may be found by anyone; or more to the point, He MUST be found by everyone! We are to seek Him when He is to be found; that means immediately—before is too late! Yes, seek the Lord now while He is near. Is there ever an occasion when our Lord is nearer than at Christmas?

Look at Him in a manger, reach out and touch Him.

Look at Him, forgiving in the confessional.

Look at Him at the communion table.

Emmanuel—God with us! How near He is to us!

Yes, come and seek Him and find Him this Christmas at St. Gianna’s!

Let Him enter your heart. Open wide the doors to Christ!

We send you our assurance of affection and appreciation for all you do for us and the parish.

We look forward to sharing Christmas with you and your loved ones.

Wishing you and your family a blessed Christmas and a happy and blessed New Year.

We are, faithfully yours,

Rev. Anthony J. Manuppella, KHS, Pastor

Rev. Franklin Opara, MSSCC

Rev. Sunny Mathew, Parochial Vicar in Residence

Deacon George Del Rossi
